Rob Carter=John Bryan,

Rob, John,

I spent some time looking through "American's Favorite Flies" and the only word I can use to describe it is magnificent!

It's a classic in every way. It's tasteful, printed on the best of paper and with a marvelous layout. I like the way each fly is displayed on single page with superb photography. It's a thorough job covering all areas of fly-fishing.

Anyone reading this book will thoroughly enjoy the section you devoted to the tiers. The bios and photographs are not just interesting but it makes the book more personal. It was nice to see you included many of my longtime friends.

I don't believe anything this comprehensive will ever again be attempted and future archivists will consider it a treasure of information.

I don't have John's address and at 92 am dealing with some medical problems so I'm taking the liberty of sending you an extra copy for John.

Congratulations And All The Best,

Lefty
